Overview

This 7-day Tanzania Northern Circuit Safari is a comprehensive wildlife journey through some of East Africa's most iconic safari destinations. The route begins in Arusha and continues to Tarangire National Park, famous for large elephant herds, baobab landscapes, and rewarding game drives. The safari then visits Lake Manyara National Park, known for lush forest, lake scenery, birds, and tree-climbing lions, before continuing to Serengeti National Park for two days of wildlife viewing across the boundless plains. Depending on the season, travellers may witness the Great Migration and enjoy strong chances of seeing the Big Five. The journey also includes Ngorongoro Conservation Area and a descent into Ngorongoro Crater, a UNESCO World Heritage Site with remarkable wildlife density. With midrange lodges, cultural visits to local Maasai communities, and classic Northern Tanzania game drives, this 7-day safari offers a balanced

Tanzania safari experience for travellers seeking wildlife, scenery, culture, and comfort.
